UNIVERSITY PRESENTATION	Founded in 1088, the University of Bologna is considered the oldest university in the Western world. Today, it remains one of the leading higher education institutions in Europe, with around 97,000 enrolled students and nearly 7,000 staff members. The University of Bologna is among the most internationalised universities in Italy. It hosts around 9,800 regularly enrolled international students, and welcomes a further 3,000 each year through international mobility programmes such as Erasmus+ and Overseas. Outgoing students participating in study abroad programmes number approximately 3,900 annually. The programme catalogue includes more than 260 Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes—110 of which are international programmes and 91 are delivered entirely in English—as well as around 50 doctoral programmes.
COLLABORATIONS AND PROJECT IN THE ADRIATIC AND IONIAN REGION	The University of Bologna has a longstanding commitment to institutional participation in EU programmes, networks, and initiatives in the fields of higher education internationalisation and development cooperation. The University supports participation in Erasmus+, Horizon 2020, EuropeAid, Interreg, and other major EU funding schemes. It is currently involved in 20 Erasmus+ Capacity Building in Higher Education projects, both as coordinating and partner institution.
