

Guidelines for Chapter 2 Admission

Entry into force 1 August 2018
Last modified 3 December 2020

More about §2(1) Deadlines for applications

In studies with ongoing admission, the applicant will receive an offer of a study place within a week, as long as the applicant meets the criteria. The offer can be viewed on the My Page search portal.

For studies with an application deadline of 15 April and/or entrance exam/audition, the applicant is either rejected or summoned for an interview when the application has been processed. The offer can be viewed on the My Page search portal.

Further details about §2(2) Admission requirements for basic studies. Entrance exam

In several of our programmes, the applicant must submit an entrance exam in addition to the application. Information about which programmes and what types of admission requirements, along with accompanying forms, are available on the website: <https://kristiania.no/opptaksinformasjon>

Normally, the admission requirement is a General University and College Admissions Certification, but it is also possible to apply on the basis of prior learning and work experience in accordance with the Regulations on admission to higher education §3(1). Prior learning and work experience. In addition to documentation of vocational practice, education or other practice/experience, knowledge of Norwegian and English must be documented at the level of Norwegian 3-year upper secondary school

Further information about §2(3) Admission to master programmes

Where grade requirements are a minimum of C, this will correspond to a minimum of 2.7 in number grades

Further information about §2(9) Deferred study start

Reservation of a study place may be granted if, after the application deadline, weighty circumstances arise that prevent the applicant from using the study place. Approved reasons may include illness, childbirth, responsibility for providing care or a summons to perform national service. Other weighty reasons may also provide a basis for granting the application. Work, education or holidays do not provide a basis for a reserved study place.

Applications for deferred study start shall be submitted in writing to the Study Administration, opptak@kristiania.no
